Subject: RE: EPA Public Notice of Administrative Record for Dimock Residential Groundwater site

Jennie,

Would we be able to get a copy of the test results from the samples taken on January 23 in Dimock? Also, are these test results going to be released to the public? And since no health concerns were found in the water. Will the water deliveries be discontinued?

Thanks,
Thomas Cahill

Subject: EPA Public Notice of Administrative Record for Dimock Residential Groundwater site

Good afternoon -

I wanted to share with you the text of an advertisement (below) which announces the availability of the Administrative Record for the Dimock Residential Groundwater site in Dimock, Susquehanna County. This ad was published in the Scranton Times-Tribune today. EPA is required to provide notice to the public of the documents in an Administrative Record used to support decisions within 60 days from an action being taken under our Superfund removal authority.

The Administrative Record is available at <http://www.epa.gov/arweb>. Additional information is also available at: http://www.epaosc.org/dimock_residential_groundwater. Locally, the Administrative Record is available at the Montrose Branch of the Susquehanna County Library.

If you have any questions or need further information, please let me know.

Have a good day -

Jennie
